

Have a Drink

Blink, blink
No time to think
The glass is full
It's yours to drink

Love is waiting
For you to blink
Enjoy the moment
No need to think

Have a brake, have a drink
A glass of wine, water or whisky
A cup of tea, coffee or cappuccino
It does matter what you think
Love is everyone's favorite drink

Love is a beautiful thing
Born in just a blink
An encounter with destiny
That lives forever
And never stops to think

Love of the moment
Is a magical drink
It makes you touch, hug and kiss
Without worrying about a thing
Dream beyond all dreams
And ignore all things that ring

Worries of love
Are no fun
It's life chasing life
That's always on the run
Negotiating a raw deal
That's never done

A moment of love
Is a daring wintry sun
That comes and goes in a blink
It warms your heart
And leaves you wondering
Waiting for the next drink

Love is a dream boat
No storm can sink
Until lovers decide
To stop and think
