

Song of the Heart

The smiling eyes
And pounding hearts
Dreams that fly
And heartbeats that cry
Tell the day and night
How you feel and I
You are in love
And so am I

To sit on the beach
And listen to oceans sing
As lovers go by
To sail with the wind
And enjoy the sunset
As clouds paint the sky
Show the world
How you feel and I
You are happy
And so am I

As the moon climbs the sky
And the night is drunk with joy
The music seduces the night
And while lips whisper and sigh
Red candles write with their blood
Love can never lie

You are my heart
And only eye
You have nowhere to go
And say goodbye
And leave me alone to wonder
And wonder why
With no heart to love
Or eyes to cry

Memories are sinking deep
Beyond heart and eye
Waiting for the daylight
To tell the story of love
Born to live and give
And never die

The smiling eyes
And pounding hearts
Dreams that fly
And heartbeats that cry
Tell the day and night
How you feel and I
You are in love
And so am I
